

Eastern Curlew

(Numenius madagascariensis)

Status: Vulnerable, threatened by habitat loss

Habitat: Coastal areas, estuaries, and tidal flats

Description: 63 cm. Dark brown on the head and neck. Long and downward curved bill with pinkish base. Legs are blue-grey. Female is slightly larger with a longer bill