

White-naped Crane (Grus vipio)

Status: Vulnerable, threatened by habitat loss
Habitat: Grassland, Wetlands

Description: 112–125 cm

Legs are pinkish and neck is dark grey and white striped. Dark grey plumage and silvery grey wings. Males tend to be slightly larger than females