

Breeding Grounds

What species of tern has the longest migratory journey?

Correct Move three steps forward

Wrong Move two steps backward

Answer Arctic Tern

Breeding Grounds

Climate change drives heavy snow in the Arctic tundra during spring. Many birds die from starvation.

Action Move five steps backward

Breeding Grounds

Your nesting sites are well protected because it is all within nature reserves.

Action Move three steps forward

Breeding Grounds

The population of red foxes increase in the breeding grounds. Your nests suffer from increased predation. Eggs and nests are frequently destroyed.

Action Move two steps backward

Breeding Grounds

Which habitat is used by the Pacific Golden Plover in its breeding grounds?

- (1) Forest (2) Desert
(3) Tundra (4) Farmland

Correct Move three steps forward

Wrong Move three steps backward

Answer Tundra

Breeding Grounds

Delayed start of spring due to climate change. Food resources are scarce. Many birds die from starvation.

Action Move two steps backwards

Breeding Grounds

You are shot for food by human hunters.

Action Start all over again!

Breeding Grounds

Conservation action in the tundra has increased the survival of your species.

Action Move five steps forward

Breeding Grounds

Breeding Grounds

Breeding Grounds

Breeding Grounds

Breeding Grounds

Breeding Grounds

Breeding Grounds

Breeding Grounds

Passage Grounds

The coasts surrounding which sea is most important for shorebirds on migration?

Correct Move two steps forward

Wrong Move two step backward

Answer Yellow Sea

Passage Grounds

Sea levels rise due to climate change. Your coastal wetland habitats are destroyed.

Action Move five steps backward

Passage Grounds

Your key passage site is now a well-protected nature reserve.

Action Move four steps forward

Passage Grounds

An invasive and aggressive type of grass changes your habitat completely. You are unable to find food.

Action Move three steps backward

Passage Grounds

What kind of food does shorebirds on migration feed on mostly?

- (1) Worms
- (2) Berries
- (2) Leaves
- (4) Fish

Correct Move three steps forward

Wrong Move three step backward

Answer Worms

Passage Grounds

Your key wintering site is destroyed by land reclamation for a new shipyard and port. You have to fly 100 km to the nearest wetland.

Action Move two steps backwards

Passage Grounds

You are shot for food by human hunters.

Action Start all over again!

Passage Grounds

Local conservationists are championing for the protection of your species!

Action Move X number of steps forward with one free throw of the dice.

Passage Grounds

Passage Grounds

Passage Grounds

Passage Grounds

Passage Grounds

Passage Grounds

Passage Grounds

Passage Grounds

Wintering Grounds

Name one species of migratory shorebird that comes to Singapore during the northern winter.

Correct Move two steps forward
Wrong Move one step backward

Answer any shorebird species in the NSS list

Wintering Grounds

Local people in the countries you visit in winter are more aware of why we should conserve migratory birds.

Action Move five steps forward

Wintering Grounds

Your key wintering site falls within an area where local communities have agreed to promote ecotourism and stop bird hunting.

Action Move two steps forward

Wintering Grounds

Your most important habitats are being cleared for a new resort development.

Action Move two steps backward

Wintering Grounds

Which group of birds below are migratory in Singapore?

- (1) Kiwis (2) Flycatchers
- (3) Parrots (4) Babblers

Correct Move three steps forward
Wrong Move three step backward

Answer Flycatchers

Wintering Grounds

You fly into a mist-net set by local people to catch birds to sell to pet traders.

Action Move two steps backwards

Wintering Grounds

You are shot for food by human hunters because you are a part of local people's traditional food items.

Action Start all over again!

Wintering Grounds

Governments agree to work together to better conserve migratory birds in the countries you winter in.

Action Move five steps forward

Wintering Grounds

Wintering Grounds

Wintering Grounds

Wintering Grounds

Wintering Grounds

Wintering Grounds

Wintering Grounds

Wintering Grounds