About World Migratory Bird Day 2022

WMBD is an annual awareness-raising campaign highlighting the need for the conservation of migratory birds and their habitats. It has a global outreach and is an effective tool to help raise global awareness of the threats faced by migratory birds, their ecological importance, and the need for international cooperation to conserve them. In 2018, WMBD unified the planet's major migratory bird corridors, or flyways: the African-Eurasian flyway, the East Asian-Australasian flyway, and the Americas flyways. WMBD is now celebrated twice a year, on the Second Saturday in May and in October. In 2022, WMBD will be held on 14 May and 8 October. The EAAFP Secretariat encourages Partners to celebrate WMBD twice a year.

Introduction of EAAFP WMBD 2022 Small Grant

Event objectives and plan (max. 500 words):

Wildlife Science and Conservation Center is a leading nature conservation and research organization in Mongolia, and we always considered the World Migratory Bird Day is an important annual event for our public engagement and education. We regularly celebrated the WMBD with the support from EAAFP and other partners. In 2022, we are planning to host WMBD events at two bird ringing stations located eastern and eastern Mongolia. These ringing stations are run by WSCC and dedicated to the songbird migration monitoring and public awareness for Mongolia. Our 2022 WMBD event's main objectives are to focus on public environmental awareness and to demonstrate bird migration research based on bird ringing activities. We will host school children with their teachers and parents in the ringing stations and give them lectures about bird migration, conservation needs, and discuss about conservation activities for the migratory birds.

- Public awareness event – mostly focused on lectures about bird migration and 2022 WMBD themes in attendance. We are planning to have about 40-50 kids from 2-3 high schools from the nearest villages and gave them lecture and engage environmental activities.
- A virtual birding event – a live broadcasting of birding to the Mongolian Bird Watching Club Facebook members (12k members) and answer their questions about bird migration and World Migratory Bird Day event.
- “Bird migration” drawing competition among kids from local schools attending the events at the ringing stations.
- Bird watching race, a small competitive bird watching activity for the kids from local schools visiting the ringing stations.
- Global Big Day event - All Mongolian eBird users and bird watchers will be encouraged to participate in the Global Big Day activity as Team-Mongolia. We will encourage local people in bird watching activity and bird conservation.

We are expecting this year's World Migratory Bird Day event's result will improve the understanding of local kids' knowledge about birds, nature conservation and bird migration and encourage them to participate bird watching activities in local scale, as well as nation-wide bird watching through the Mongolian Bird Watching Club members.
